DEFENDANT: LEONEL RAMON GRULLON
CASE NUMBER: 1:14-CR-10172-LTS

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) The defendant is to participate in a mental health treatment program as directed by the Probation Office. The defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for such treatment based on the ability to pay or availability of third-party payment.
- 2) Pursuant to the Adam Walsh Child Protection And Safety Act of 2006, the defendant shall register as a sex offender not later than 3 business days (from release or sentencing, if granted probation). The defendant will keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where the defendant resides, is employed or is a student. The defendant shall, not later than 3 business days after each change in name, residence, employment, or student status, appear in person in at least one jurisdiction in which the defendant is registered and inform that jurisdiction of all changes in the information. Failure to do so may not only be a violation of this condition but also new federal offense punishable by up to 10 years imprisonment. In addition, the defendant must read and sign the Offender Notice and Acknowledgment of Duty to Register as a Sex Offender per the Adam Walsh Child Protection And Safety Act of 2006 form.
- 3) The defendant shall participate in a sexual specific evaluation or sex offender specific treatment, conducted by a sex offender treatment provider, as directed and approved by the Probation Office. The treatment provider shall be trained and experienced in the treatment of sexual deviancy, and follow the guideline practices established by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). The sexual specific evaluation may include psychological and physiological testing which may include polygraph, ABLE screening, and other types of testing, as approved by the Probation Office. The defendant shall disclose all previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider. The defendant shall also contribute to the costs of the evaluation, according to his/her ability, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer. When submitting to a polygraph exam, the defendant does not waive his or her Fifth Amendment rights, and the defendant's exercise of such rights will not give rise to a violation proceeding. The results of the polygraph examinations may not be used as evidence in Court to prove that a violation of community supervision has occurred, but may be considered in a hearing to modify release conditions and/or could initiate a separate investigation.
- 4) The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or have access to any online service without the prior approval of the Probation Office. The defendant's cooperation shall include but not be limited to allowing installation of a computer and internet monitoring program and/or identifying computer systems, internet-capable devices, and similar memory and electronic devices to which the defendant has access (except a computer owned by his employer and not located in his residence). The program(s) used will be designed to identify, for the probation office, only the viewing, downloading, uploading, transmitting, or otherwise using any images or content of a sexual nature, defined as Suspect Computer Use. Suspect Computer Use shall be identified by the installed program(s) and/or the probation officer through the screening of the defendant's computer usage for certain key words, phrases, and images. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of such monitoring services, based on the defendant's ability to pay, as deemed appropriate by the Probation Office. The defendant shall not attempt to remove or otherwise defeat such systems, and shall allow the Probation Office to examine such computer and receive data from it at any reasonable time.
- 5) The defendant shall allow the Probation Office to install software (IPPC or other) designed to monitor computer activities on any computer the defendant is authorized to use. This may include, but is not limited to, software that may record any and all activity on the computers the defendant may use, including the capture of keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence, and chat conversations. The defendant will pay any costs related to the monitoring of his computer usage.
- 6) The defendant shall advise anyone in his household that any computer in the household may be subject to computer monitoring.
- 7) The defendant is not to use a computer, internet-capable device, or similar electronic device to access child pornography or to communicate with any individual or group for the purpose of promoting sexual relations with children. The defendant is prohibited from entering chat rooms to send or receive "instant messages," or to send or receive email with attached electronic files through any electronic medium unless required for an express class assignment in an accredited educational institution or as an express job requirement for legal, outside employment. The defendant shall not utilize any sex-related adult telephone services, websites, or electronic bulletin boards.

DEFENDANT: LEONEL RAMON GRULLON

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 8) The defendant shall disclose all online account information, including user names and passwords, to the Probation Office. The defendant shall also, if requested, provide a list of all software/hardware on his/her computer, as well as telephone, cable, or internet service provider billing records and any other information deemed necessary by the probation office to monitor the defendant's computer usage.
- 9) The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information for purposes of monitoring their compliance with the imposed computer access/ monitoring conditions, including, but not limited to, credit card bills, telephone bills, and cable/satellite television bills.
- 10) The defendant shall have no direct or indirect contact with children under the age of 18, except in the presence of a responsible adult who is aware of the nature of the defendant's background and current offense, and who has been approved by the Probation Office. Should the defendant have incidental contact with a child, the defendant is required to immediately remove himself from the situation and notify his/her probation officer. The defendant may have unsupervised contact with his children if deemed appropriate by the Probation Office.
- 11) Prior to accepting any form of employment, the defendant shall seek the approval of the Probation Office, in order to allow the Probation Office the opportunity to assess the level of risk to the community the defendant will pose if employed in a particular capacity.
- 12) The defendant is to pay the balance of the restitution according to a court-ordered repayment schedule.
- 13) The defendant is prohibited from incurring new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the Probation Office while any financial obligations remain outstanding.
- 14) The defendant is to provide the Probation Office access to any requested financial information, which may be shared with the Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office.
